

All Behavior Has a Function
Reinforcement Drives Behavior
We Will Reinforce the Behaviors You Want!

Training Package

Start Smart: Your Positive Reinforcement Journey Starts Here

Who is This Training Package For

Any dog and cat parent that wants to get started with training their pet using scientifically proven, positive reinforcement training approaches

What You Will Learn

You will learn the essentials needed to begin training your pet properly using highly effective, science-based positive reinforcement approaches. You will gain a better understanding about why your pet does certain behaviors, and how you can communicate clearly with them and use positive reinforcement to train them to do the behaviors you desire. In addition, you will use positive reinforcement to teach your pet some valuable foundational behaviors that will be beneficial in your everyday life and set you up for training any behavior or "trick" that your pet is physically capable of doing!

- ✓ Lessons on Animal Behavior: Why They Do What They Do
- ✓ How Positive Reinforcement Training Benefits You and Your Pet
- ✓ How to Communicate Clearly with Your Pet: Technical Aspects of Positive Reinforcement Training
- ✓ Teach Your Pet Valuable Foundational Behaviors
